John Garthright, our fearless founding leader of Tree Climbing Japan, is back in the saddle again with his web site, www.treeclimbing.jp . Some of the English needs a little polishing up (he is from Japan don't you know) but other than that it has great content, lots of news, and lots of photos too. Everyone here needs to e-mail Johnsan after visiting his site to let him know he is doing a great job and give him some feedback. Flood him with your support- that is what I say!! Great job adopted brother!! Can't keep a good man down, eh? Our hearts are with you all the way, no matter what circumstances try to get in your way. Johnsan will have his other web site up soon too- www.treehab.com Happy days are here again!!
