

---

Enjoy America's Great Outdoors

Posted by leafwalker - 06/24/2006 12:09pm

---

Hello everyone,

On June 22nd there was a segment on Good Morning America with their Top 10 Outdoor Vacation Spots. I didn't get to see it, but was told about it by a friend:

<http://abcnews.go.com/GMA/Summer/story?id=2105885&page=1>

Tree climbing in Atlanta is number 9! There's a photo with this description at the Related Stories/Photos link:

"Vacation Land: The Great Outdoors

Tree climbing in Atlanta, Ga. is an off-beat way to experience nature's majesty. Tree Climbers International is a group of people who love to climb trees. They offer classes on how to scale trees using rope. The group was founded by Peter "Treeman" Jenkins, a retired rock and mountain climber and certified arborist.
(Peter Jenkins/Tree Climbers International)"

The news is spreading...

-leafwalker

=====