
Decorating Our Christmas Tree

Posted by Sitka - 12/12/2006 03:18am

This year I decided to go all out and decorate a huge fir tree in our yard. I spent weeks hoisting up giant decorations and gargantuan glass balls. Here's a few pictures of me climbing the final product. Have a good holiday everyone!!!)

Sizzle-Ian-Sitka,

Hahahahahaha....very cool. Please invite me over to help next time. I keep my alter ego on my saddle.

Nice Christmas/Holiday tree to be politically correct in case you are in Seattle!

Hey Gary, I did not see the alter ego He-man decorating his Holidays-Tree. What is up with that? I saw your Yoga calisthenics posted on the U-tube site. Good job. By the time I do all those exercises I will be so tired that I may as well go back home! he he he.....
