Have you guys used the "Karma" feature yet?

You better not give me bad karma or something bad will happen to you! :laugh:

Yep, I'm using it. Not sure how useful it is but I'm spreading it around.

Karma seems to come in 6 hour increments. I clicked Nicks Karma and then Moss's...but it wouldnt accept Moss...saying had to wait 6 hrs. Odd. Sorry Moss:S I'll keep trying. :)

Hi--

We got rid of the "karma" feature. Nobody knew what it was for.
We're trying to resolve the issue of how the "home page" for each thread is displaying.

Thanks for your patience as we continue to work on the glitches. It's frustrating all around. Everybody gets definite KARMA points this week.
