
And the Week 2 Contest Winners Are...

Posted by pattyjenkins - 11/24/2007 10:55am

Congratulations Moss and Avery for winning this week's gear rater contest!

For those who are interested...here's how the winners get picked: I get our website to generate an Excel report listing all the reviews that have been written. Then I call a couple friends who are inevitably in the kitchen at this time of Saturday morning and ask them to each pick a number. No muss, no fuss!

Thanks to everybody for writing reviews! There are 3 more weeks, so keep it up!

We are steadily adding new gear to the Gear Rater as requests come in, so don't be shy about asking.

Patty

Congratulations Moss and Avery on winning this week's gear review contest.
I will have to send my gear order to Sherrills soon to see what Santa will bring me! B)
