Hello Nick, Thanks for the video of your climb to rescue your rope.

You definitely could had used a Camera person to help but it worked out well and you demonstrated the problem. Nice lesson to learn for every one using advanced technical climbing gear.

I see that you survived the CA fires in one piece. Thanks God!:woohoo:

Hope to see you at the next get together! B)

Hey there! The 'out-takes' at the end were almost as amusing as the the video! Thanks for sharing the info AND the giggles!

Hey Nick. I was just up there earlier today. It was chilly (low-40s), but clear and sunny. I wonder if I climbed the same tree you did.
